Introduction to Program Construction 2

Practical 2.

1.

The 1st of January 1900 was a monday. We want you to write a program which reads in a date since then into variables day, month and year and which outputs what day of the week that day is.

2.

Write a function which takes an integer number and returns the number reversed.
rev(1234) = 4321